

Symposium Collective Memory, National Identity and Commemorations

Program:

Friday 6 June

9.30 Word of Welcome Tanja van der Lippe

- | | |
|---|---|
| Jon Fox
University of Bristol | National holiday commemorations: The view from below |
| Marcel Lubbers
Radboud University | Participation in Dutch national celebrations and commemorations in times of freedom |
| Manja Coopmans
Utrecht University | National commemorations and celebrations and feelings of national belonging in the Netherlands: The moderating role of age and immigrant status |
| Janneke Hellema
Utrecht University | Does participation in national commemoration increase cohesion in societies? |

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch

- | | |
|---|---|
| Anouk Smeekes
Utrecht University | Historical representations of national identity and attitudes towards immigrants |
| Magdalena Bobowik
University of Basque Country | Healing the past and building the future: Collective narratives, official apologies, and reconciliation |

15.00-15.15 Break

- | | |
|---|--|
| Rosemarie Buikema
Utrecht University | Performing dialogical truth. The role of the arts in critical memory discourses |
| Alan McCully
University of Ulster | Teaching History where collective memory, national identity and national commemorations matter |

19.00 Conference dinner at de Rechtbank

Saturday 7 June (9.00 start)

Esther Captain

National Committee 4 and 5 May

Learning lessons from the past: Public and vernacular memory in the Netherlands

Sabrina de Regt

Utrecht University

The formative period and support for national commemorations

Amy Corning

University of Michigan

Generations and collective memory

11.00-11.15 Break

Antonietta Curci

University of Bari Aldo Moro

Emotional and social determinants of collective remembering

Jonathan Koppel

Aarhus University

Introducing the youth bias: The role of cultural expectations in recall for public events

13.00 End of Symposium

Universiteit Utrecht

